

WILDLIFE & ENVIRONMENTAL CLUB OF AFRICA NAZARENE UNIVERSITY. (WECANU)

CLUB CONSTITUTION

Club Slogan: Don't Be Greedy, Be Green

BACKGROUND INFORMATION.

The club was started in 2009 with as the Wildlife Club under Mrs Beth Wokabi and Environmental Club under Professor Isaac Kigatiira as separate entities which later merged to form the Wildlife and Environment club of Africa Nazarene University. The then dean was Mr. Otwoma. It is under the Students services with the guidance of the Environment and Natural Resource Management Department who play a key role in the running and management of the club though the club incorporates members from all departments at the university including school of law, school of religion, school of science and technology, school of business, and school of humanities & social sciences.

PREAMBLE.

The vision of Africa Nazarene University is to be:

- A light to the people of Africa through higher education grounded in the Wesleyan-Holiness tradition;
- The University of choice for Christians desiring academic excellence;

- A community which will produce individuals of character and integrity of heart; and
- A place where lives will be transformed for service and leadership to make a difference in Africa and the world.

As one of the cogs in the gear-train that drives the University towards this vision, the Wildlife & Environmental Club of ANU, aligns all its activities towards this vision. The club operates under the policies, rules, regulations, procedures and other statutes that govern the conduct of students and operations within the University.

MISSION

Leave the world better than we found it.

Vision

To be the most recommended club in not just our institution but also globally because what we get ourselves involved in, incorporates the three Cs that is character, competence and community in all club activities.

ARTICLE 8: MEETINGS

Wednesdays is the set day we get to hold our meetings at the round huts from 3:30 to 4:30. Tuesdays and Thursdays are the official meeting times from 4:00pm to 5:00pm

Meetings are preceded by the officials present of which it is a must for the secretary to be available so that the minutes can be taken. All members present signs in their names so as to keep track of the active members and the non-active members. Issues are brought to members concerns for solution and new activities are announced here. Notices and posters are pinned on the school notice boards to notify the members of anything about the club's welfare, upcoming/ongoing campaigns or activities.

The meetings are categorised as follows:

- General meeting: This is held once in every week (Either Tuesday or Thursday).
- Special meetings: It is held if there is a need or pressing issue that has to be addressed urgently.
- Leaders meeting: Once every week strictly before the general meeting (to discuss on agendas)
- Committee meeting: The office bearers are mandated to meet once every three weeks to discuss monthly activities, achievements and failures since they are the determiners of the club's face and running or on call.

ARTICLE 9: PROCEDURE AT MEETINGS.

The meetings for the club can only start if there is a forum of seven members excluding the office bearers. It stands adjourned within the first fifteen minutes if there is no appearance of any forum.

Club's time is strictly one hour starting at 4:00pm (unless otherwise following any arising discussions)

The following is the procedure followed in the meetings held:

- An opening prayer is said from one of the club members.
- The chairperson then opens the meeting which is also can be done by the vice chairperson in case of his/her absenteeism.
- The minutes from the previous meeting are read out and confirmed through signing by the chairperson and secretary (Needs to be printed before the meeting).
- The agendas for meetings are then discussed with the facilitator taking charge.
- Meanwhile, a sign in sheet circulates for the present members to sign. This helps in keeping track of the most active and dormant members.
- After all agendas are discussed and agreed accordingly to satisfaction, and no other issue is raised, the meeting can then be adjourned.
- A closing prayer is then said by one of the members.

ARTICLE 10: FUNDS.

The annual membership payment made by the club to the Wildlife Clubs of Kenya allows for the awarding of a certificate to the club which is then recognised as a member of the Wildlife Clubs of Kenya.

For the registration fees incurred by club members, it caters for:

- The wildlife club cards and club WCK registration Certificate which are a requirement by the Wildlife Clubs of Kenya
- Operating costs incurred by the club such as printing posters, transport and phone call costs while on official duty.

ARTICLE 11: AMENDMENTS OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Any change to the constitution shall be met by calling for a special meeting to be held at an agreed venue and time and the deans office/Students services office alerted of the intention. A constitutional Review committee consisting of 3 members and 3 executive officials and the patron be constituted from the meeting. The committee then meets, come up with its leadership and inserts the proposed changes in the constitution. It shall then be read to the members who should not be less than nine in attendance. Any opinions, objections and recommendations shall be welcomed.

If need be for changes to the proposed amendment, the concerned committee shall go back to the table and look into it within one week before the chairperson calls for a special meeting for the amendment adoption in the presence of a representative from the dean's office.

The amendment shall then be read to the members who still need not to be less than nine.

Once the members are satisfied with it, it shall be passed into the constitution by vote with the majority counts having their way.

To confirm this, the office bearers, two members from the club shall sign across the amendment. Four copies shall be printed availing each one to the club's patron, the chairperson, dean of student's office and a member from the club chosen by the other members.
